

Sample Essay Topics

Choose one of the following topics. Write an essay of about 250 words.

- News editors decide what to broadcast on TV and what to print in newspapers. What factors do you think influence their decisions?
- Scientists do experiments on animals for many purposes such as medicine and cosmetics, and lots of animals are killed for the sake of gaining information. Do you think animal testing is necessary?
- What are the causes of overpopulation in big cities and how does this affect city residents in return?
- What are the causes of low level of education in a country?